

Farming on Your Balcony

A workshop for members interested in raising vegetables this spring, summer and fall in small places.

Saturday, April 10, 9:00 a.m.—11:00 a.m.

Cook County Farm Bureau

Large Conference Room

6438 Joliet Road

Countryside, IL 60525

Pre-register by April 7th by calling the Cook County
Farm Bureau at 708-354-3276

Topics:

The importance of soil, Cook County soils, and soils for containers and raised beds

Seed and Plant selection

Fertilization and organics

Growing tips and harvesting hints

Growing veggies from seed

Speaker: Ms. Nancy Pollard, Unit Educator, Horticulture for the Cook County Unit of the University of Illinois Extension

In today's economy, stretching your food dollar makes sense. Producing one's own food is rewarding in so many ways. And, today's gardening techniques work for people with a patio, deck, porch, apartment, townhome, condo, backyard and even for those that Farm!